

BCorp is a worldwide network of socially responsible companies, which aims to generate a social impact through various commitments:

1

COMMITMENT TOWARDS THE VALUES

---

B Corp companies are seeking solutions concerning social and environmental problems through their business activities. The aim is to create and develop a business model that has a positive social impact from a societal and/or environmental perspective.

2

COMMITMENT TOWARDS A LEGAL RESPONSIBILITY

---

One of the responsibilities of BCorp is to take into account the interests of interest groups as a whole. This commitment must be reflected in the statutes of the company.

3

COMMITMENT TOWARDS

---

B Corp companies publish an annual report concerning their social and environmental impact certified by an external and independent body, in which you can see all the company's results through all its operational areas and through its business model.

1000friends has been certified a B Corp company since 2015.
